GLOUCESTER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch,) GLOUCESTER, C. H., Va., February 17.—The cold snap of last week lasted long enough to allow farmers to partially fill their fee houses.

There has been little going on in the social world. The week, however, was inade eventrul by a brilliant entertainment given at the Odd Fellows' Hall, Gloucester Courthouse, under the able management of Mrs. Charles E. Cary, Miss Mary Kerop and Miss Maretta Slisghif. The stair was not only a most enjoyable one, but a brilliant success financially. The proceeds were for the benefit of repairs on Wares Church, a very old colonial building. There is a determined and enthusiastic purpose to put the church in full repairs.

Another entertainment which gave great pleasure and which was a financial success was given at Hickory Fork for the benefit of the Abingdon organ fund. It was under the management of Misses Jeanette and Boula Buck. Mr. and Mrs.
E. H. Mason very graciously loaned their spacious house for the occasion.
